

Ayelet Bental Israeli
19 Hatamar st., Ra'anana 43571 Israel
E-mail ayelet.ayeletbental@gmail.com

CURRICULUM VITAE

Born in Israel in 1968. Married + 3

A. Education:

2006-2015: Lecturing full time in Bar-Ilan University for M.A., Counseling Psychology programs.

Couples and Families therapist in Telem Institute.

2003-2006: Practicing at Ackerman Institute for the Family, Manhattan, NYC.

1998- 2001: Ph.D. Degree, as Kreitman Doctoral Fellow, at Ben- Gurion University of the Negev, Educational Psychology Program.

1994- 1996: M.A. Degree, with honors, at Bar- Ilan University, the department of Education Consultation.

1990- 1993: B.A. Degree, with outstanding honors, at Bar- Ilan University, the department of education consultation and literature. In parallel I have completed studies for a certificate for teaching literature in high-schools.

1986: Matriculation from Katzir High- School, Rehovot.

B. Awards and fellowships:

- Full Kreitman excellence grant for doctoral students, from Ben- Gurion University.
- Scholarship of distinction during the B.A. and M.A. studies, from Bar-Ilan University.

C. Courses which I teach in Bar-Ilan University

- Counseling in the Family.
- Research Methodologies.
- Introduction to Educational Psychology.

D. Membership in professional associations:

- Member of Israel Association of Educational Counselors.
- Member of the Israeli Center for Qualitative Methodologies (ICQM), at Ben-Gurion University of the Negev.

E. Languages: Hebrew, English.

F. Army service (1986- 1989):

- As an officer (Lieutenant) in the Education Corps, commanding and training women soldiers in that Corps.
- Served as a junior commander in the Education Corps, teaching new immigrants and under- educated soldiers.